Development Committee Awards Prizes to 13 Seniors at School Assembly; Students Praised

City Dignitaries Visit Findlay High School

At an assembly held for the presentation of prizes for their essays on post-war problems sponsored by the Findlay Chamber of Commerce...

Room 212 Gives Pay-Off Party

A pay-off party for home room 212 was given by home room 212 Thursday evening at the high school. This party was given as a result of a challenge won by room 2 in the paper drive.

Those who wanted to ice skate met at the Donnell stadium at six o'clock and skated until seven-thirty, after which they went to the high school where their party was held.

The boys played basketball and the girls played ping-pong. In the basketball game, home room 212 won with a score of 14-8.

To conclude the party everyone went to room 8 for sandwiches, potato chips, and cocoa. A "thank-you" speech was given by Max Wise, president of home room 2, and a "welcome" speech was made by Abbie Entrikin, student council representative of home room 212.

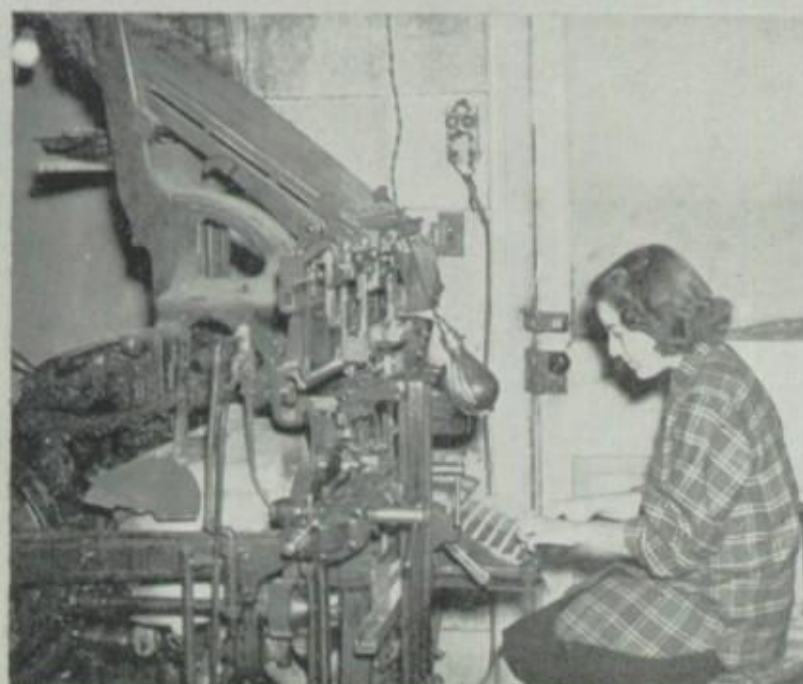

The three janitors of the school were guests. A very fine time was reported by everyone.

ret pointed out that unless a definite plan is set up after the war, things needed will be unattainable. He expressed the need for international education in a cooperative post-war world.

Cot. A. D. Patterson made the presentation of the Treasury Department's "Minute Man" award, received by the school for its ninety...

ALMA MATER

Come one and all from Findlay High,
School to us most dear.

Let us sing her praises
for guidance through the years.

Give thanks for opportunity to learn and live democracy.

We are loyal boosters of old Findlay Senior High.

Findlay High! Old Findlay High!
Alma Mater fairest
Blue and Gold! Oh Blue and Gold!
Our inspirations be.
Trojans brave! Oh Trojans true!
We're with you every one.
Findlay High! Dear Findlay High!
We rise to honor Thee.

"LEST WE FORGET"

"We Sing the Song of Farewell" was heard through the auditorium of Findlay High School. Another graduating class, another commencement, but this time it was our class, the class of '45. For three years we had been waiting anxiously for this moment, and now that it was here we wanted to keep it forever. As we started to walk down the aisle for almost the last time as students of Findlay High, we began reminiscing.

One senior boy smiled to himself as he remembered the first day he began high school as a sophomore on September 8, 1942. Now he can laugh about it, but at the time he was just plain scared. For at least a week he was late to almost every class. Somehow or other he always got in the library when he should have been in 205. However, the teachers and upperclassmen were very helpful and it was not long before he felt himself really one of the student body of F. H. S. That year Mr. W. O. Jones came to Findlay to very capably take over the duties as music instructor of all the public schools "Free Men," a patriotic pageant, with the help of every school, was a great success on the stage of our auditorium Bob Smith headed the sophomore class with "Chick" Hardy and Ann Murphy as vice president and secretary The Blue and Gold Staff joined the N. S. P. A. . . . Gas rationing began. Oh! Horrors!!

The boys gave everyone nightmares with their crew hair cuts and the girls received many disgusted glances by wearing long plaid shirts They, too, had a new fad in hair styles, which were very appropriately called "feather cuts" That year Mr. Schmunk replaced Mr. Waite in the machine shop That year too, we really began to be war minded, and Captain Ernest Winkler, a German refugee, talked to the students in an assembly An Austrian girl, Miss Ellen Klentz, spoke to G. R. and G. A. A. . . . Hi-Y celebrated its thirty-second birthday the tunes hummed the most were "My Devotion," "Strip Polka," "Jingle Jangle Jingle" and "Dearly Beloved." For the first time we had an alma mater song, which was composed by Mr. A. G. Kuhns . . . Our football and basketball teams both gallantly upheld the fair name of F. H. S. . . . Then came spring and with it the Junior-Senior Prom, which much to our chagrin we could not attend. This major event was followed by two others equally as great—the Baccalaureate Services and Commencement exercises. And with these we said good-by to the class of '43.

And we were Juniors!!!

As Commencement exercises proceeded, a white robed graduate recalled her "in between" year beginning September 7, 1943 That was the year Ralph Askam, Ned Chate!ain, Dohna Roberts assumed helmsmanship of the class Two new faces were greeted, Miss Marion Lord as librarian and Mr. Clifford Hite as instructor in instrumental music Bobby socks and Frankie Sinatra were all the rage We recognized "Mickey" McDonald as having one of the up and coming orchestras Whether you were at the Hi-Hat, "Y" dance or just listening to a juke box, it was "Blue Rain," "I'll Be Around," "Paper Doll" and "Racing With The Moon" that you always could hear Robert Friers and his blonde wife Betty showed us interesting films in the Paricutin Volcano. They are now making an all time record in Carnegie Hall, New York, with their show, "Mexican Holiday" Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant, of the Ohio Supreme Court spoke to us Otto Schacht thrilled us by his dramatic singing and lecturing We started sending the "Blue and Gold" to our alumni servicemen while we kept the slogan "If You Don't Write, You're Wrong"

 "Ginny" Bauman took the leading role in the Junior Play, "Lena Rivers" . . . Three one-act plays were "Elmer and the Lovebug," "Mooncalf Mugford" and "The Happy Journey" The ever popular operetta "Sweethearts" was given that year

For the first time the entire school wrote on the American Legion Essay on Pan-America, everybody waiting 'til the last minute struggling to get his in on time "Icebound" was chosen for the Senior Play That year for the first time a swimming team was started and made a good showing Another of F. H. S.'s great basketball teams, after winning twenty games without a loss, bowed to their opponents in the first round of the regional tournament at Bowling Green University's gymnasium With the year coming to a close again, finishing exams, recognition of scholastic achievement, services of students and their loyal co-operation, the Junior-Senior Prom with its exotic atmosphere of tropical Hawaii, Baccalaureate and followed by Commencement, we bade farewell to another class.

And we were Seniors!!!

The Commencement speaker had finished his message; we stood to receive our diplomas. And as we descended from the platform we were all reminded of our last and best year "Prexy" of the senior class was Dean La Rowe, while Virginia Bauman and Jo Crane carried out the duties as vice president and secretary "Ginny" Bauman and John Cain were Thespian and Student Council presidents respectively Miss Pearl Moran resigned her position as English and journalism instructor. Mr. C. W. Hunsicker assumed the duties as Blue and Gold advisor Mr. Ricketts replaced Mr. Stewart in the machine shop and Mr. Huffman took the place of Mr. Porter in the automobile shop An Honor Roll was made by students for all alumni of F. H. S. who are now in the service Many seniors experienced nightmares in preparing for the three hour senior scholarship tests Professor George Davis from Purdue University gave us an interesting program on his hobby of presenting poems The Band and Orchestra Concert of February 21 was well received by the audience they entered the contest at Bowling Green scheduled on April 21 The junior class presented "Ghost Wanted" and the Thespians gave "Junior's Mustache," "The Opening of a Door" and "Boy Meets Family" To Jewel Perkins was given the task as president of the National Honor Society, and Ann Murphy very capably took over the duties as editor of the "Blue and Gold" An assembly was held for the presentation of awards to high school seniors for their essays on post-war projects, which was sponsored by the Findlay Chamber of Commerce. Bob Smith received the first prize, followed by awards to Jeanne MacGregor, Jack Duffield and Clara Mae Mills in addition to these, awards were given to ten other seniors At the same assembly, Col. A. D. Patterson made the presentation of the treasury department's "Minute Man" Award, received by the school for its ninety per cent participation in the purchase of war bonds and stamps. Good for us!! After a lapse of a few years, pep rallies were enthusiastically introduced in school Our football team once again upheld our high standard as winners and the basketball team was especially victorious by tying with Fremont for first place in the Buckeye League H. M. S. Pinafore, one of Gilbert and Sullivan's most popular operettas, was definitely hailed as a success A great triumph for Jacqueline Henry and Joe Huth was their winning of the American Legion essay contest along with four underclassmen Popular tunes on the Hit Parade were Frankie singing "If You Are But A Dream," "Don't Fence Me In," "I'll Walk Alone" and "Robin Hood" the girls came out armored with silver bracelets and barettes one of our fair haired heroes turned up at a "Y" dance in a plaid skirt As we recall it was our own class president Due to a man shortage (E-gad!) the girls came to the rescue and took over the Trojan Staff and senior play cast. The play selected was "Nine Girls" then came the traditional senior chapel with the art exhibit and the music festival came the close of another year's activities. The longed for Junior-Senior Prom, Baccalaureate, and Commencement came at last, and with these we departed the class of '45.

Whose hands are these?

They hewed a farm out of the forest and built a cabin chinked with stones and sealed with mud. They shod the horses of the Pony Express and laid the ties for the railroad that linked East to West.

They paved the roads and built neat houses. They tilled the soil and made of the empty fields a waving, golden sea of grain. They set out the trees that were white with blossom in Spring and heavy with fruit in Autumn.

The little red schoolhouse was the work of these hands, and so was the great dome on Capitol Hill and the spires of a thousand churches.

The crossroads store and the town hall, Brooklyn Bridge and the Golden Gate, Boulder Dam and the Grand Coulee . . . these hands knew them all.

And they filled a sea with ships so that from one horizon to another there was nothing but the gray might of that floating armada . . . and overhead the sky was dark with planes.

Whose hands, you ask? These are the hands of all who have worked to make America great. They accepted the challenge of its frontiers and turned its forests and its mountains and meadowlands into a citadel of strength. For every young man and woman in America, another challenge now exists . . . to work for victory and, when peace comes, to shape the materials for a better life in a world made free.

AMERICAN TRADITION

• Quality, Integrity and Dependability have established themselves as a definite tradition with Pontiac. We have been constantly on the alert for new and improved procedures in yearbook designing and service. Our modern precision equipment is concrete evidence of adherence to this policy. Our experienced craftsmen and servicemen are carefully supervised by experts in the field of distinctive school publications. We are proud to have played a part in the publishing of this book in the capacity of official photo engravers. Our entire personnel congratulate the staff for their splendid work and cooperation.
